

TAE Classes 2021

Daily training rate price list 2021

At TAE we believe in training rates with no hidden costs. We publish daily rates as some divers may take longer or want to their time. In our daily training rates, we include:

- Transport from the dive center to the dive site and return
- Cenote entrance fees (up to US$50)
- Specialty equipment (with the exception of DPV's and Rebreaters) and tanks

In our daily training rates, we do not include:

- Basic diving gear you need to bring is thermal protection, fins, mask and dive computer
- Training manuals (prices are between US$26 and US$150 depending on training level)
- Diver registration fee with training agency is US$55 per diver per level
- Specialty Gases (Nitrox 32%, Trimix and O2 for Rebreather related programs)
- Daily fresh CO<sub>2</sub> absorbent for Rebreather related programs
- Helium based mixes (see separate price list for standard mixes we use for training)
- Boat rental from Tulum, Playa Del Carmen, Cozumel or Puerto Morelos are US$100 day
- Rebreaters, variety of models available at a rental fee of US$50 per day
- DPV Scooter rental US$50 per day.

Any diving programs below, labeled as workshops do not include a certification.
